

Thurs 21st April
Art Workshop with Cora

Cora – will be back – this time with her artist's hat instead of her seal warden hat - to help us to get creative with soft pastels.

Thurs 19th May
Women's Suffrage and e-zine demo

Two activities for the price of one! Rachel Ridealgh will talk to us about Women's Suffrage in Norwich and Laura Moseley will demonstrate how to make an e-zine.

Thurs 16th June
Flower Arranging

Lynn Rawlings will demonstrate some flower arranging techniques before we get an opportunity to try them ourselves.

Thurs 21st July
Burlesque

Natasha from Tinted Rose Showgirls Dance Studio will show us how to bust some sexy, sassy moves for an evening of burlesque!

Thurs 18th August
Summer Break

No meeting – enjoy your summer break!

Thurs 15th September
Macramé

Maxine Mace will help us to make macramé feathers to use in wall hangings. Christmas gift potential maybe?

Thurs 20th October
Norfolk Black History

Danny Keene, Chair of Norfolk Black History Month, will talk about Norfolk Black History.

Thurs 17th November
British Sign Language

Steve Hurley will give us a taster of BSL and teach us how to sign our names.

Thurs 15th December
Wreaths and Christmas Crafts

We'll get festive, making Christmas wreaths as well as having a go at some Christmas crafts. There may be something mulled!

Thurs 19th January 2023
Sustainable Fashion

Kate Harper from We Wear the Trousers will talk about how to keep our clothes in use for longer. We will also have a go at visible mending.

Thurs 16th February 2023
AGM and Competition

Time to elect our committee and President. Also, look out for information about a fun competition open to all members!

Thurs 16th March 2023
Taxidermy Talk

Jazmine Miles, ethical Taxidermist, will talk about her taxidermy work for galleries and museums.
